

North Central Texas

Water Quality Project

<http://nctx-water.tamu.edu>

Texas AgriLife Research and Extension Center at Dallas

17360 Coit Road, Dallas, Texas 75252

August 27, 2009

The Tarrant Regional Water District in cooperation with Texas AgriLife Research and The Texas AgriLife Extension Service, agencies of The Texas A&M University System, announce the next public stakeholder meeting of the Cedar Creek Watershed Partnership.

Cedar Creek Watershed Protection Planning Meeting

Thursday, September 10, 2009

1:30PM to 4:30PM

Kaufman County Library
3790 South Houston Street
Kaufman, Texas 75142

The meeting will focus on the presentation of the final draft of the Cedar Creek Watershed Protection Plan and discussion of plan implementation issues.

Watershed Planning and Management is a holistic, publicly driven effort to improve the water quality through public education and management of activities occurring on the within the drainage basins that serve local waters.

The North Central Texas Water Quality Project is supported in part by the United States Environmental Protection Agency, the United States Department of Agricultural- Natural Resources Conservation Service and The Tarrant Regional Water District.

For further information or to RSVP for the meeting, please contact David Waidler, Watershed Coordinator, at 972.952.9689 or d-waidler@tamu.edu.